September 2017

Our annual meeting and luncheon this year will be on Sunday, October 1st at the Stewart Manor Country Club, centrally located in the small village of Stewart Manor adjacent to Garden City. The elegant historic club opened in 1927 and is graced with attractive landscaping on its great lawn. Ample parking is available behind the building. Our speaker will be Theodore Roosevelt, as portrayed by re-enactor James Foote who has been presenting his authentic first-person TR for many years (including at Sagamore Hill and at our annual meeting fifteen years ago).

At our luncheon in the Grand Ballroom, will have a choice of three entrees (selections made at the table): sliced steak, chicken francaise, or salmon with dill. The meal also includes a salad, butternut squash soup, vegetables, a Pie Bar with choice of five pies and ice cream, and soda, coffee or tea (a cash bar is available). Lunch is scheduled from 1 to 4 pm on Sunday, October 1; our room will be available from 12:30. There will be open seating. We can guarantee good food, an interesting program, and an enjoyable afternoon.

Please make your check payable to: Nassau County Historical Society. Cut off the reservation form at the bottom, and return with your check to the luncheon chairperson, Betsey Murphy, 587 Hunt Lane, Manhasset, NY 11030-2754 (a pre-addressed envelope is enclosed). You can also reserve on our website and pay by credit card; credit card reservations will also be taken at our Sept. 17th meeting. Any questions, call Betsey at 627-8674 or Natalie Naylor at 538-7679. Early reservations are appreciated. The price is $50 if postmarked by Friday, September 22; $55 if received later. (Tickets will not be sent; check in at the door.) We cannot guarantee space will be available if you come without reserving.

Directions: The Stewart Manor Country Club is located at 51 Salisbury Avenue in Stewart Manor, south of Stewart Avenue and four short blocks west of New Hyde Park Road. It is on the north side of Salisbury Avenue, with a long driveway. From the Northern State Pkwy, take exit 26S or from the LIE/Rt. 495, take Exit 34S.
